

PAMUKKALE UNIVERSITY
CRITERIA TO PASS THE TURKISH PREPARATORY COURSE

1) Turkish Proficiency Levels:

The Turkish proficiency levels of Pamukkale University are as follows:

- a) Level C1: Turkish level of the student is sufficient. He/She can start studying.
- b) Level B2: Turkish level of the student can develop in a short time. He/She starts the education. However, he/she has to make the Turkish proficiency level C1 until he/she graduates.
- c) Level B1: The Turkish level of the student is sufficient to start the education at our university. However, he/she has to increase the Turkish proficiency level to C1 level until graduation.
- d) Level A2: The Turkish level of the student is insufficient. He/She is obliged to learn Turkish at the end of 1 year when he/she is granted leave of absence. He/She can start the education after he/she increases the Turkish level at least to B1. However, he/she has to increase the Turkish proficiency level to C1 level until graduation.
- e) Level A1: The Turkish level of the student is insufficient. He/She is obliged to learn Turkish at the end of 1 year when he/she is granted leave of absence. He/She can start the education after he/she increases the Turkish level at least to B1. However, he/she has to increase the Turkish proficiency level to C1 level until graduation.

2) Turkish Preparatory Course:

- a) The applicants must certify their level of Turkish knowledge. However, the Turkish proficiency levels of the candidates who cannot submit this document are determined according to the results of the Turkish Proficiency Exam to be conducted by the related center to be appointed by the Rectorate.
- b) The candidates, who cannot submit a Turkish Proficiency Certificate or who are not successful in the Turkish Proficiency Exam organized by the Center, cannot register to the 1st year of the related program.