

SOCIAL SCIENCES UNIVERSITY OF ANKARA CRITERIA TO PASS THE TURKISH PREPARATORY COURSE

Turkish Proficiency:

The candidates, who are accepted to the programs whose language of instruction is Turkish, must get the sufficient points from the Turkish tests in Turkish and Foreign Language Teaching, Research and Application Center (TÖMER) that belong to TR Universities and/or Social Sciences University of Ankara, Turkish Language Teaching Research and Application Center (DİLMER) in order to start their education after enrollment.

Candidates, who have completed their secondary education at the Turkish high schools of the Ministry of National Education, are considered sufficient in Turkish.

The Turkish proficiency levels according to the European Language Portfolio are as follows:

C2 Level: Turkish is sufficient. He/She can start studying.

C1 Level: Turkish is sufficient. He/She can start studying.

B2 Level: Turkish can develop in a short time. He/She can start studying.

B1 Level: His/Her Turkish level is sufficient to start learning in our university.

A2 Level: His/Her Turkish level is insufficient. He is obliged to learn Turkish at the end of 1 year when he/she is granted leave of absence. He can start his education after raising his Turkish to at least B1 level.

A1 Level: His/Her Turkish level is insufficient. He is obliged to learn Turkish at the end of 1 year when he/she is granted leave of absence. He can start his education after raising his Turkish to at least B1 level.